

Diwali

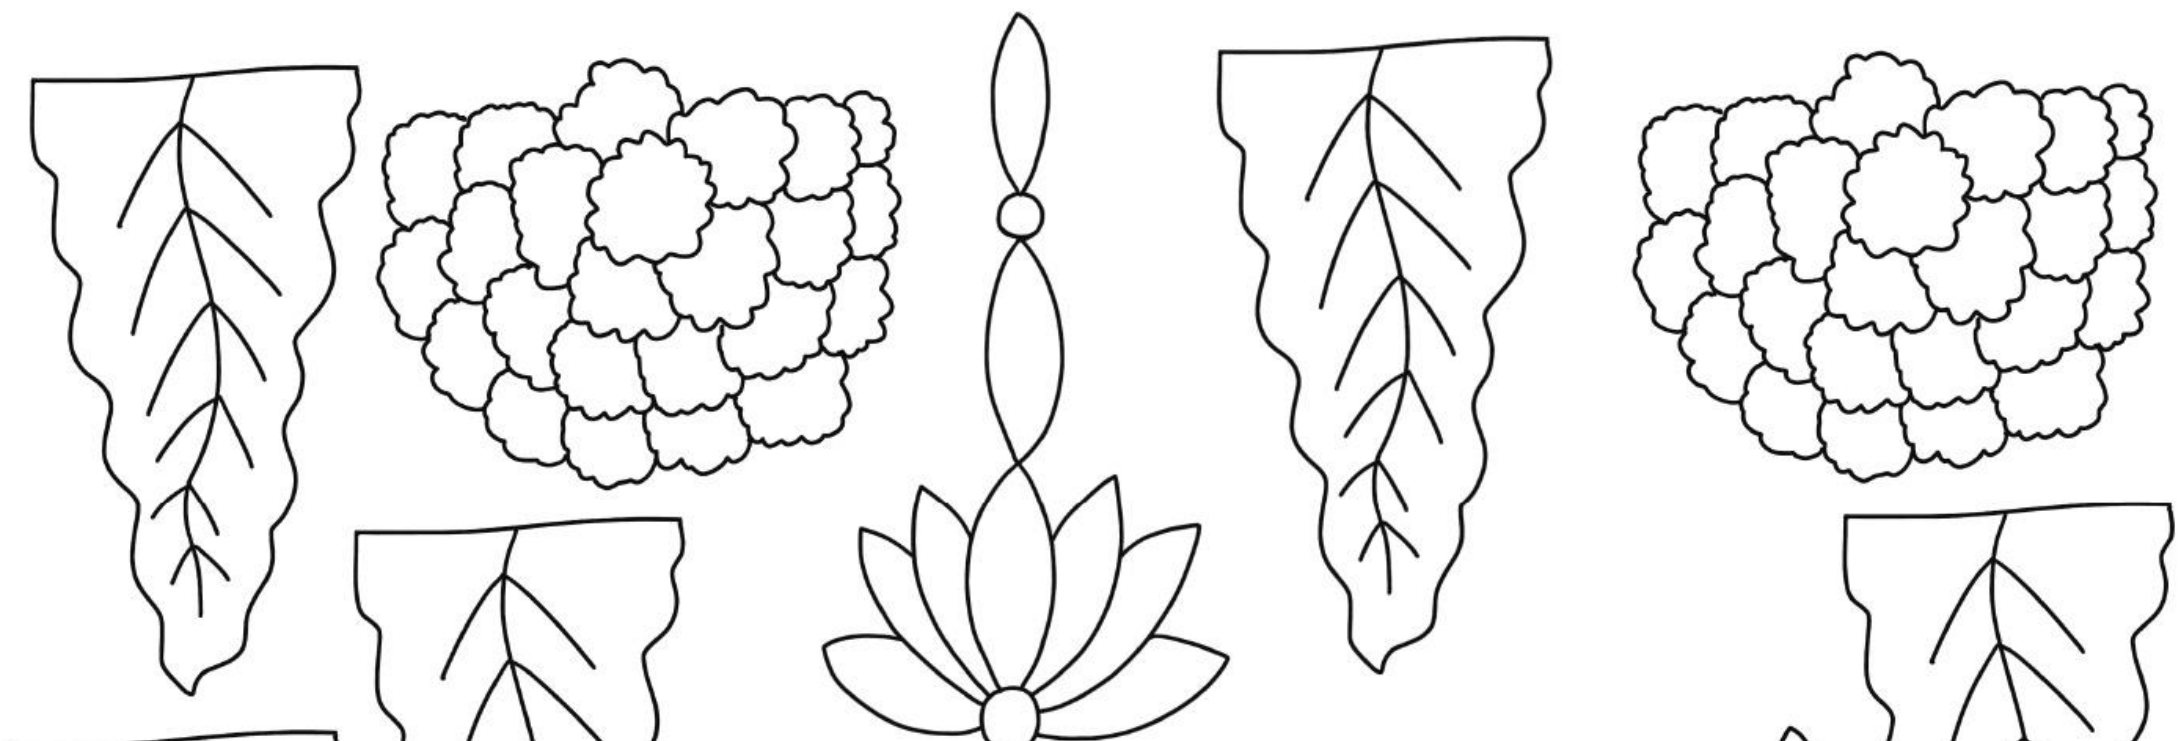

Festival of Lights

ACTIVITY PACK

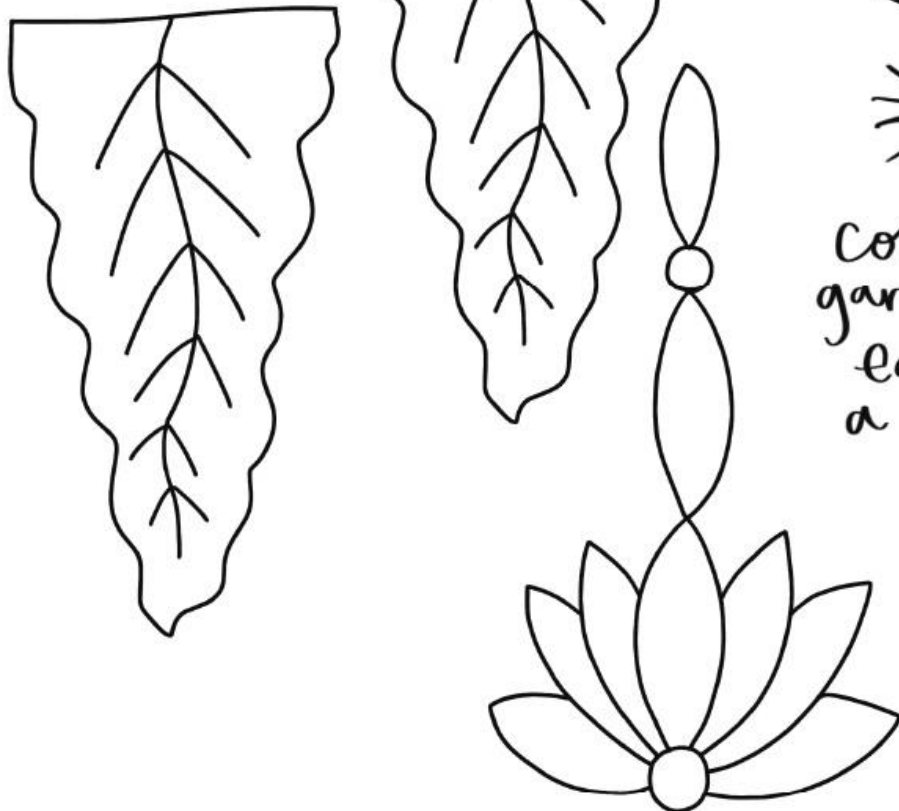

♡ BY ROSIE AND RAMONA ♡

Diwali Bunting

Colour the leaf and flower garlands in, carefully cut out each piece and attach to a piece of string in a row to hang up as a Diwali decoration!

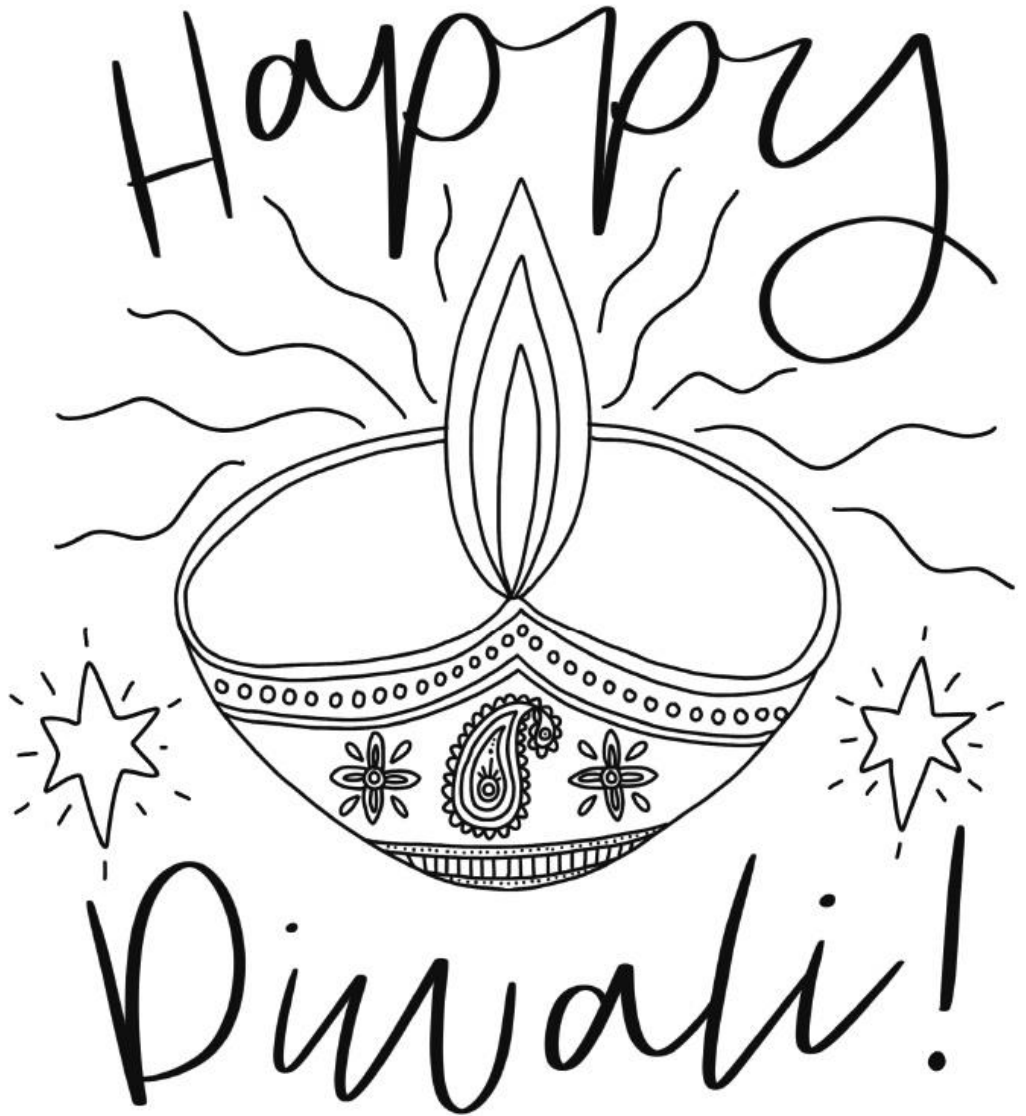

DIWALI IS A WONDRFUL CELEBRATION AND OFTEN PEOPLE LIKE TO GIVE CARDS TO FAMILY AND FRIENDS. THIS CARD CAN BE COLOURED IN AND DECORATED. YOU COULD ALSO USE A BRIGHT SWEET WRAPPER TO STICK ON THE DIVA LAMP FLAME! CUT OFF THIS WRITING AND FOLD YOUR CARD IN HALF. BE SURE TO WRITE A LOVELY MESSAGE INSIDE!

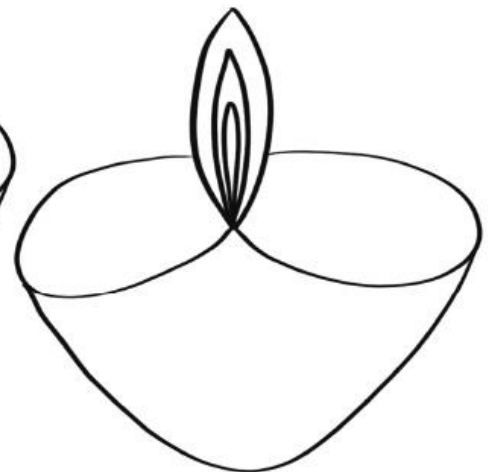

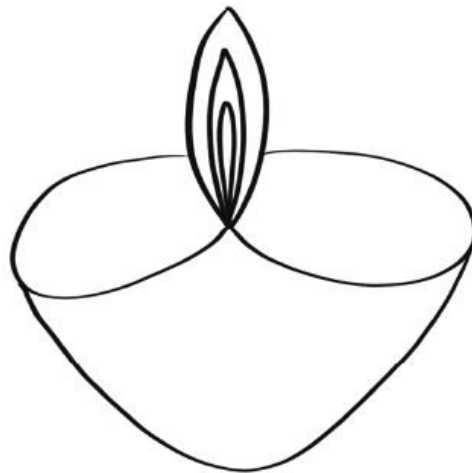

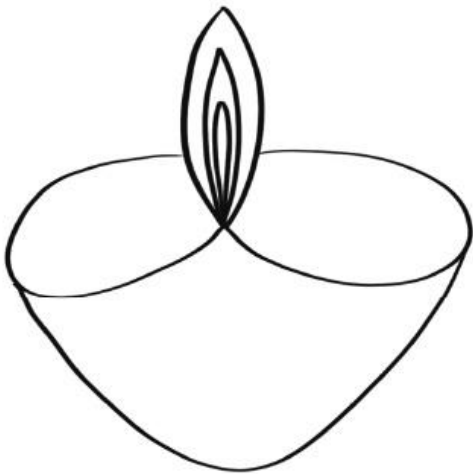

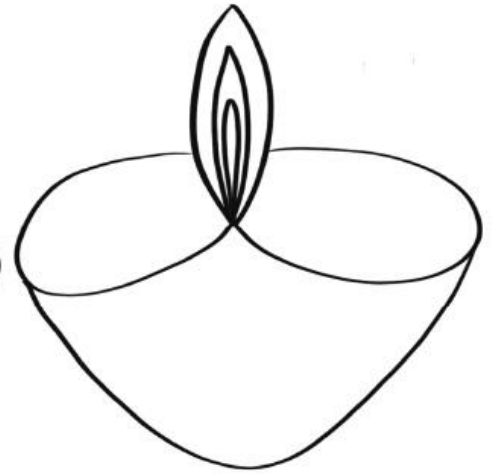

✂ CUT HERE ↴

* FOLD HERE ↓

Best Diwali
Card Made
By:

* Diya Lamps *

Diya Lamps are a really important part of Diwali. It is after all the festival of light! Only one of these Diya Lamps has been decorated with beautiful patterns, can you draw patterns on the other five? You could also colour them in and cut them out! And even write a message on the back and give to a loved one!

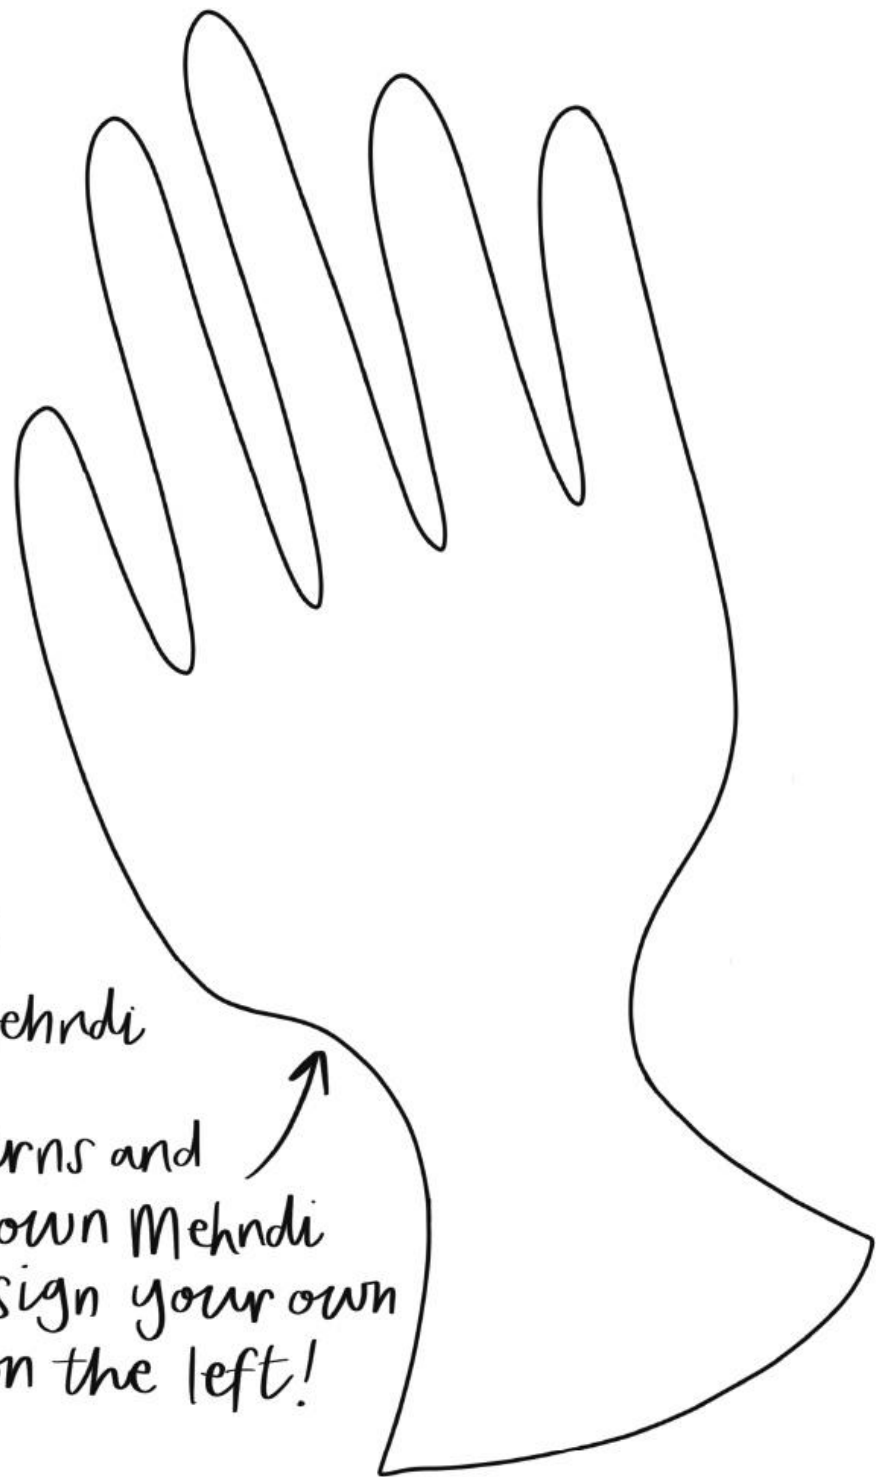

Can Rama Find Sita?

In the story of Rama and Sita, Rama has to save his captured love Sita. Follow the lines from Rama to find Sita, but beware, the other lines lead to different characters in the story!

wow, look at this beautiful Mehndi decorated hand!
Can you use patterns and lines to draw your own Mehndi hand? You could design your own or copy the one on the left!

Diwali Rangoli

Rangoli is a super clever art form where you make a colourful symmetrical pattern on the floor with coloured sand or rice. How amazing! Here's a colour by numbers Rangoli for you to try out!

- | | | |
|----------|-----------|-----------|
| 1. Blue | 2. Red | 3. Purple |
| 4. Green | 5. Yellow | 6. Orange |

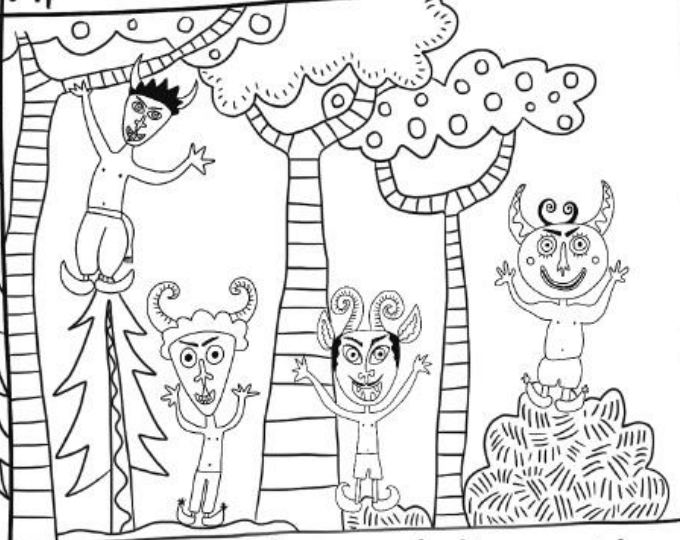

The Story of Rama & Sita

Rama was a good Prince who was strong and kind. He had a beautiful wife called Sita who he loved dearly.

Rama and Sita were sent away from the palace to live in the forest.

But when they got there it was full of terrifying demons!

Ravana, the 10 headed king of the demons, heard that Rama was in the forest. He wanted to fight him to prove his strength.

When Ravana got to the forest he saw beautiful Sita and came up with a sneaky plan to capture her.

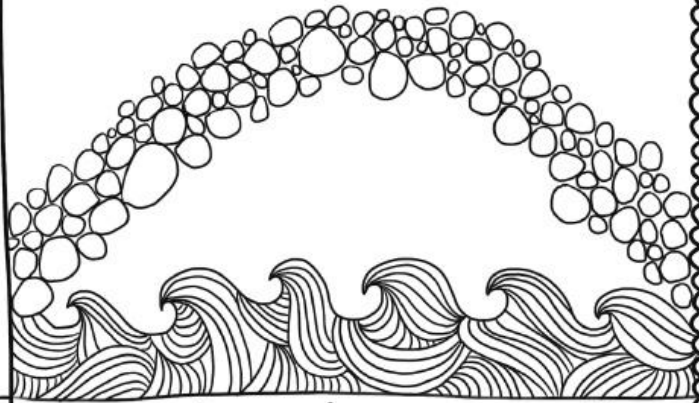

He tricked Rama to chase after a golden deer. When Rama was gone Ravan stole Sita away!

When Rama saw that Sita was gone, he was heartbroken. What could he do?

Rama searched everywhere, but then he came across his friend Hanuman, King of the Monkeys. Hanuman hated Ravan's wicked ways and offered to help.

Hanuman's monkey army built a bridge over the sea to Ravan's Kingdom so that he could find Sita and steal her back to safety.

Then Rama and Hanuman's army fought Ravan and his demons. The battle was hard but they finally won.

The whole Kingdom were so happy to see Ravan gone. They lit millions of lamps to guide Rama, Sita and Hanuman home to their Kingdom.