

Every picture tells a story

LEICESTER

Look for this painting in the gallery...

Paintings like this one are usually called 'landscapes'.

It was painted a long time ago. Is there anything in the painting which you recognise?

What's your favourite view of modern Leicester? Do you have a favourite building in the city?

Things to talk and think about in the gallery

What has changed the most about Leicester since this painting was made?

Would you like to live in Leicester then or now? Why?

How does the painter draw your eye to certain parts of the painting?

How does the artist make things look far away?

Things to do at home or school

Try using different materials and techniques to make an artwork of your street, neighbourhood or of a green space near your home.

For inspiration, search online for other landscapes of Leicester (and other places).

Email your finished work to learning@leicester.gov.uk
The museum will be happy to see your creation and it may be posted on our website!
