Every picture tells a story

COMMUNITY

Look for this painting in the gallery...

Look closely at the painting of The Good Samaritan. What do you think is happening? Is a story being told?

Who do you think is the most important person in this painting? Why?

What else has the artist painted in this group picture to set the scene?

Things to talk and think about in the gallery

Look carefully at the faces of the people in the painting and describe what you think each person is feeling.

Make your own facial expressions for each emotion.

Imagine you are in the painting – What can you see? What can you smell? What can you hear?

Things to do at home or school

Experiment with drawing different facial expressions.

Create a self-portrait to say how you are feeling in that moment.

Create a background to your image which is personal to you.

Email your finished work to learning@leicester.gov.uk
The museum will be happy to see your creation and it may be posted on our website!
